

EXTRA

Boston K. of C. Ship on Fire

EXTRA

THE WEATHER
Forecast for Boston and Vicinity—Fair tonight and probably Wednesday; warmer tonight, moderate south and southwest winds. Sun rises at 5:58, sets at 7:49. Moon sets at 5:59 p. m. High tide at 1:11 a. m., 1:39 p. m. Temperature: Maximum, 76 at 11 a. m.; minimum, 58 at 4 a. m.; average, 64. Light all vehicles at 8:19 p. m.

BOSTON AMERICAN
LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION
VOL. 20—No. 117
BOSTON, TUESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1934
3 CENTS; WORTH IT

NIGHT EDITION

2 WOMEN HACKED TO DEATH BODIES PACKED IN WOODEN BOXES, SLAYER ARRESTED IN MEDFORD

FIRES GUN COALITION IN BATTLE WITH COPS SPLIT BY KU KLUX

Hyde Park Burglar Suspect is Seized With Loot in a South End House

After a struggle in which one shot was fired by Albert Cyr, nineteen years old, of New Bedford, the youth was placed under arrest early today by officers of the East Dedham street station.

Cyr, wanted for several breaks in Hyde Park and the larceny of two automobiles, was captured in a house on Concord street, South End, by Special Officers James F. O'Neil, Martin Conroy and Frank Donovan.

The police say they recovered a quantity of loot stolen last Friday night from a Hyde Park avenue hardware store and Kennedy's men's store. This included two suitcases filled with silks, jewelry, a rifle and a revolver.

Cyr is said to have loaded the stolen property into an auto stolen in Hyde Park, in which he drove to Massachusetts avenue, Back Bay, where he abandoned the car when it broke down. He transferred the loot to another stolen machine and proceeded to the South End, leaving the stolen property in his room. The police say he then went to Ball River, where his home is located.

The officers say in wait for Cyr.

Continued on Page 4, Col. 5

SLAYER AND ONE OF HIS VICTIMS

The knife used by Tsikos to kill his wife and mother-in-law. At left are shown the boxes the two bodies were packed in. Mrs. Catherine Adams, Tsikos' mother-in-law, is shown in the circle. The other photo is a fine likeness of the little paperworker.

CONFESSES WHEN CRIME IS BARED

Nunie George Tsikos, an Albanian paper mill worker of Franklin, N. H., was arrested today in Medford charged with murdering his 23-year-old wife, Natalie, and her 70-year-old mother, Mrs. Catherine Adams.

The murders occurred in Franklin at 9 o'clock Saturday night. The slayer stabbed his young wife, then slit his aged mother-in-law's throat. He cut up the bodies and packed them into wooden boxes. One box had a crated top, the other was nailed solid. He marked them "dishes" and hired Charles A. Clark of Franklin to drive him to Boston. He paid him $25.

Before daylight today as Clark approached Lowell he became suspicious. Reaching back a hand in the 3 o'clock darkness he felt something wet. Peering as he passed under an electric street lamp, out of sight of the passenger at his side, he saw it was dark, probably blood. A block further on he reached back the hand again. This time, through the slit of the crated box, he felt something small. It was a human finger.

Less than an hour later Tsikos had hidden the "dishes" in a field by a lone elm at High street and the parkway, Medford, and Clark had fled for the police.

Tsikos was arrested as he ran for a street car Bostonbound in Medford square.

Assigned in Middle Court today was asked by Judge Willie Stover what he wished to plea.

"Guilty," he said.

He was prevailed upon to change his plea to not guilty and was held.

Turn over.

Race Scratches

- AT SARATOGA.
3—Despard, Bees, Frankman.
Weather clear; track fast.
- AT KENILWORTH.
2—Brynmouth, Fitzree.
3—Paul G. Brown.
4—Orland, Bullet Proof.
5—Best Pal, Baby Mine.
6—Pirate McGee, Rosen, Dominator.
- AT KINE JOHN, Miracle Man, Wild Flower, Black Hackle, Ferguson.
Weather clear; track fast.

BOSTON KNIGHTS IN STRESEMANN TELLS PERIL IN SHIP FIRE FRANCE TO GET OUT

Montreal, Que., Aug. 14.—Eight Massachusetts delegates to the Knights of Columbus were in peril of their lives when five broke out today on the Steamer Italia B.

The K. of C. men were aboard the excursion boat Montreal and, flames from the Italia B. leaped the side of the other boat. The smoke filled the air, but the fire was put out.

The Boston knights, led by William C. Prout, helped to avert a panic.

Berlin, Aug. 14. (AP)—The general strike in Berlin was called off by the Communists this morning, all the transportation lines reopening.

Berlin, Aug. 14. (AP)—Dr. Gustav Stresemann, the new German chancellor, outlined in a statement today the conditions under which Germany is ready to abandon the passive resistance in the Ruhr.

The conditions are the complete restoration to Germany of her right of local telephone operation.

Continued on Page 4, Col. 5

BOSTON GIRL IS LEFT DYING IN ROADWAY BY AUTOIST

York Beach, Aug. 14.—Emily Murphy of North Easton, Mass., and Cynthia Mills, of Boston, were struck by an automobile and left seriously injured in the highway here today.

The automobile, with smashed windshield and broken headlight, sped away. The girls were motionless for almost an hour. The Mills girl came to, first, and crawled to a position in the road where she could signal a passing automobile. It was driven by Raymond Brackett of Milton. He hurried the girls to the local hospital. Miss Murphy is dying. She has a fractured skull.

PHONE GIRLS START FIGHT TO REINSTATE OLD UNION

Worcester, Aug. 14.—A bitter fight was started here today at the A. F. of L. convention by an attempt on the part of local telephone operators to force the reinstatement of Local 1A of Boston.

A resolution, drawn by the Worcester delegates, and backed by all the local girls, was introduced on the ground that the reinstatement of Miss Annie E. Molloy and her supporters was the only move that would prevent the complete breakdown of the telephone girls' union.

BANK STATEMENT TODAY

Bank	Assets	Liabilities
First Nat.	$1,000,000.00	$1,000,000.00
Second Nat.	$1,000,000.00	$1,000,000.00
Third Nat.	$1,000,000.00	$1,000,000.00
Fourth Nat.	$1,000,000.00	$1,000,000.00
Fifth Nat.	$1,000,000.00	$1,000,000.00

SUSPECT HELD IN MARLBORO SHOOTING

Marlboro, Aug. 14.—Hugo Baldi of Highland street, Somerville, was arrested today as a suspicious person in connection with the shooting of John Girouard, local ice dealer. Girouard is dying at the Marlboro Hospital, while State constabulary and police of fifty cities and towns are searching for five young run pirates who shot Girouard and escaped from his icehouse after robbing Dennis Meehan of Lawrence of $2,900 and seizing an auto-load of Canadian bonded whiskey valued at $2,000.

2 MORE BROKERS ARRESTED; CHARGED WITH BUCKETING

Inspector Frank Haggerty of the Bank Squad, today arrested two brokers in connection with the Bur-sue-Lang arrest of yesterday. They are Charles L. Walker of Dix street, Dorchester, and Ernest W. Stone of Radford Lane, Dorchester. Both men were charged with operating a bucket shop and bucketing orders.

$1000 FOR YOU
--AND WHY!
COMPLETE INFORMATION
ON PAGE 12

SIMONDS
SAWS for Wood or Metal
Sawing and Planing Co.
Sawing and Planing Co.

KILLS WIFE AND MOTHER-IN-LAW; SLAYER CAPTURED, CONFESSES

VICTIMS ARE STABBED TO DEATH

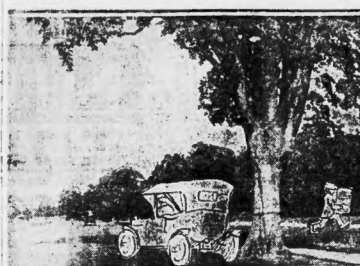

Continued from First Page.

without halt for the arrival of the police. In the meantime, he had freed his crime. Medford police declared.

The murders were committed at Teeko's home, No. 47 Canal street, Franklin. His mother slept as he battered her mother and their grandmother. The children are John, three years old, and a baby brother, Christo, ten months old.

On Sunday, the day after the murder, police say he told them he had Clark take him with the children to Boston where he left them with his own mother at No. 8 Baring place, West End. He then went back to Franklin, where he took the children to his mother's home, where he had packed them in their massachusetts coffin. Late last night an "dish" moved them. Boston ward in Clark's office, of the actual crime, police say Teeko confessed as follows: He stabbed his pretty wife

PRINCIPALS AND SCENES IN MEDFORD'S GREWSOME DOUBLE MURDER CASE AND CHILDREN ORPHANED BY TRAGEDY

WHERE BODIES WERE ABANDONED
Photodagran shows where slayer stopped under the lonely elm tree on the Mystic Parkway and Teeko took his gruesome burdens into the field.

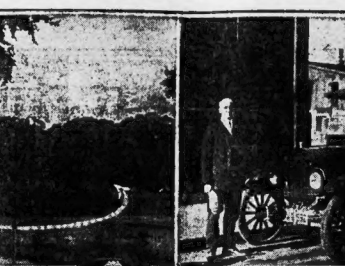

through the left breast, police say he confessed, then backed her in the side. "The butchers were just formed with my jacket," he said. "I took her to the cellar and with a towel I was lying on the floor." "When I got my wife down to the cellar," he confessed, police say, "I went to my mother-in-law and with the same jacket I hit her through the head."

AS BABIES SLEPT

Teeko went to bed, he told the police, and went "fine" until Monday morning after having dragged the bodies into the cellar. Sunday morning he placed in boxes.

PLACED IN BOXES

He carried up both bodies, police say, packed them carefully into

SLAYER AND HIS CAPTOR
Patrolman John O'Meara of the Medford police, who captured Teeko in Medford square after the discovery of the crime, is shown holding Teeko.

wooden boxes, both two and a half feet long, by two feet square with the eighteen inches deep, the other fourteen inches. He didn't wrap them in anything, he says, just packed them in. One he nailed a cover. The other he nailed strips across, crate fashion, having no material to make a cover, he says. Then he went to bed. Monday he dropped in on Clark again. Clark works in the Franklin new shop of the Shattuck Construction Company, so Teeko dropped in early.

"Will you run me down to Boston again?" he says asked Clark, according to police. "I have a couple of boxes of dishes to take down. 'I pay you well'."

"I wouldn't go down for you money," Clark says he replied. "The trip is too heavy."

Clark says Teeko called him and he finally agreed to take him to Lexington for $15.

So last night Clark's driver drove up at Teeko's place, and the boxes of "dishes" were placed in the back seat along with a suit case. The case contained, it later proved, the clothes of little Mrs. Teeko, whose maiden name was Adams.

Approaching Lowell, Clark and the hair-raising experience, "I was referred to. No score had not dropped the finger of the dead body than he glanced at his companion.

"He sat there calm and collected, in fact he was talking about 'house-bell'," said Clark. "I was so shaken I was almost sick. Some feeling told me a horrible crime had been committed."

"The thought flashed across my mind that I might be next," he says. "I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

THE MURDER CAR

Charles P. Clark, the driver and left to right, Patrolman William F. Sullivan and John O'Meara.

If he wished to make a statement. "I'll tell you," he says he exclaimed. "This is the story they say he told."

"I'm a driver man in the International Company's paper mills in Franklin, Massachusetts after work I came home and my wife suggested that I take our little boy to the circus. I changed my clothes and did so."

"When I came home I found my wife dressed up ready to go out. I asked her where she was going and she wouldn't say. I made a remark which angered my mother-in-law, who attacked me with a bare-hand bat. She struck me over the head."

"I wrenched the bat from her hands and knocked her to the floor. In the struggle my wife jumped on my back and hit me. I kicked her off, then held her with one hand while with the other I pulled my jackknife from my pocket. She struggled desperately."

"I opened the knife with my teeth, then I stabbed her in the left breast. She relaxed her body, quivered, then lay still. Then I jabbed her in the side several times. When I thought she was dead I carried her to my mother-in-law. She was beginning to regain consciousness. I took her pulse and she lay there."

"She lay very still. It was her five or six. I am sure they meant to kill me."

Teeko then detailed how he cut up the bodies, threw them into the trunk of his car, and brought them to Boston. The room was in order, showed no blood stains and in the cellar where the man and he dismembered the bodies there was no blood.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

CHRISTO AND JOHN TEKO

without removal of the victim's clothing. Six knife wounds in the left breast were the only wounds on the body.

Teeko is 35 years old. Up to 14 months ago he operated a fruit stand in the Fisher Block in West Medford square. He was known as Nuno George, dropping his Albanian name.

When the Fisher Block burned, Teeko gave up the fruit business and moved his family to Franklin. His wife was then an expectant mother, the little girl Nuno took to the circus on Saturday night two years old.

Previous to his West Medford residence the fruit man had lived in Somerville. To his confession Teeko said he had had trouble with his wife frequently, once he said she had left him. This part of his confession was borne out by queries among neighbors of his mother in Barton place, West End.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

COUSIN TAKES CHARGE

Teeko's children are, Christo, ten months old, and John, three. They were being cared for today at the home of Teeko's brother-in-law, George Christo. He conducts a grocery store at No. 29 Van Ness street, West End.

They are being "mothered" by their cousin, Lina Christo, thirteen, daughter of George. Lina was checked at 7 o'clock this morning when Medford police called at her home to see her father. They previously had been at Teeko's home at No. 9 Boston court in the West End, where they lived.

Teeko's mother, then took her to Medford police headquarters. Lina said her father went away with the police, too. Immediately she packed her little cousin away alone in the gloomy second-story room in Barton court, where she hurried there, dressed them and took them to her own home, where she is carefully watching over them.

It's all a big mystery to Lina, she thought her Uncle Nuno and his wife were happy.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

The aged mother-in-law, it was learned by the Boston American, had been in the country but two weeks. She came from Boston. Another daughter, sister to the murdered young wife, lives in South Boston. She is Mrs. Gertrude Voss. She is critically ill, so ill in fact as to be in operation.

Neighbors and Teeko had one flourishing wholesale fruit business. When he struck financial string, he, they said, grew weary of domestic responsibilities and left him. He took her back, but for a time previous to the murder in Franklin the man had no knowledge of his wife's whereabouts, they said.

Filene's Automatic Bargain Basement

black patent leather effect $1 brown or black $2
girls' or women's colored or novelty and $1 white $1

WEDNESDAY

Filling the entire Main Basement Aisle

12,093 prs. women's or girls' SHOES discontinued or odd lots SECONDS

sizes 2½ to 7-E widths in lot

3535 prs. black or brown pumps or oxfords.
2484 prs. women's or girls' red, green, blue novelty or black sandals.
1023 prs. sample or odd shoes.
535 prs. comfort house shoes or slippers.
471 prs. girls' patent Mary Janes.
2786 prs. 1-2-3 strap pumps.
1036 prs. girls' strap pumps.
201 prs. white nubuck pumps.
canvas combination oxfords.

HUNDREDS OF OTHER BARGAIN LOTS NOT ADVERTISED—NO MAIL ORDERS

SLAYER AND HIS CAPTOR

Patrolman John O'Meara of the Medford police, who captured Teeko in Medford square after the discovery of the crime, is shown holding Teeko.

wooden boxes, both two and a half feet long, by two feet square with the eighteen inches deep, the other fourteen inches. He didn't wrap them in anything, he says, just packed them in. One he nailed a cover. The other he nailed strips across, crate fashion, having no material to make a cover, he says. Then he went to bed. Monday he dropped in on Clark again. Clark works in the Franklin new shop of the Shattuck Construction Company, so Teeko dropped in early.

"Will you run me down to Boston again?" he says asked Clark, according to police. "I have a couple of boxes of dishes to take down. 'I pay you well'."

"I wouldn't go down for you money," Clark says he replied. "The trip is too heavy."

Clark says Teeko called him and he finally agreed to take him to Lexington for $15.

So last night Clark's driver drove up at Teeko's place, and the boxes of "dishes" were placed in the back seat along with a suit case. The case contained, it later proved, the clothes of little Mrs. Teeko, whose maiden name was Adams.

Approaching Lowell, Clark and the hair-raising experience, "I was referred to. No score had not dropped the finger of the dead body than he glanced at his companion.

"He sat there calm and collected, in fact he was talking about 'house-bell'," said Clark. "I was so shaken I was almost sick. Some feeling told me a horrible crime had been committed."

"The thought flashed across my mind that I might be next," he says. "I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

"I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick. I was so scared I was almost sick."

CLAIMS SELF-DEFENSE

"I opened the knife with my teeth, then I stabbed her in the left breast. She relaxed her body, quivered, then lay still. Then I jabbed her in the side several times. When I thought she was dead I carried her to my mother-in-law. She was beginning to regain consciousness. I took her pulse and she lay there."

"She lay very still. It was her five or six. I am sure they meant to kill me."

Teeko then detailed how he cut up the bodies, threw them into the trunk of his car, and brought them to Boston. The room was in order, showed no blood stains and in the cellar where the man and he dismembered the bodies there was no blood.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

Neighbors informed the police that the entire Teeko family had left the house on Saturday morning, presumably for Boston. It is evident, police say, the murders were committed elsewhere.

CURLEY WILL PRESENT SWIM PRIZES

EIGHT RIVALS IN BIG RACE

COALITION IS CALLED BY KKKLUX KLAN

MAYOR TO ATTEND BIG CARNIVAL

Boston American's Annual Tournament Set for Next Saturday

Mayor James M. Curley will attend the Boston American's annual water carnival in Charles River Basin next Saturday afternoon and will present prizes to the first five girls finishing in the future event—the all-open swim.

This feature race will probably be the most exciting ever witnessed in the Charles River Basin as the fastest memora in New England have entered for it. The record of 23 minutes, 44 seconds, made by Olive Holland, July 4, is in danger of being broken, according to experts who know the excellent condition the girls are in.

A girl swims for first place is expected. The favorite for first position is Miss Olive Holland of Woburn, who has won first during the past four years. Miss Patricia Carleton, the oldest Miss Worcester High school girl who won second last year, and Miss Ruth Newwood of New Bedford, who won third last year and earned the previous year's title, are also expected to be in the race.

OTHERS SEEKING HONORS.

Others who the experts figure have a good chance of winning first prize are Miss Helen Bourdon, fourteen, of Marlboro, who was at "dark" during the swim, and Miss Edith Bourdon, also fourteen, of Lawrence, who was fifth in last year's race. Miss Mary M. of South End, who won fourth Miss Wilson Norton of Cambridge who finished tenth, Miss Margaret Snodgrass of Woburn, who finished eleventh, and Jane L. Jones of Sharon, who came in fourteenth.

MERMAIDS SEEK SWIMMING HONORS

Eight girls entered in Boston American water carnival to be held Saturday afternoon in Charles River Basin. They are left to right, Misses Holland, Matz, Nelson, Spargo, Snodgrass, McCardie, Muir and Mangler.

Because of the fact that many girl swimmers did not have time to register the closing hour for entering has been extended until Thursday noon.

Among the main entries are those of Miss Olive Holland of Woburn, who has entered the 58-yard, the 100-yard and 150-yard races.

Evelyn Sanderson of Brookline, who will compete in the mile. The Antis sisters of Cambridge, Edna, eighteen, Betty, fourteen, Evangeline, thirteen, and Theodora, twelve, are entered in the mile.

LONG LIST OF PRIZES.

Mrs. Leon Muir of South End, and Mrs. Ethel Mitchell of Lakewood, N. H., are among those who have entered the 50-yard dash for mothers. Winifred A. Young of Quincy, Lillian M. MacFarlane of Somerville, and Eula Burns of Nashua, N. H. have entered the mile. The prizes in the mile open will be, first, leather traveling bag; second, week-end case; third, pearl necklace and diamond earring; fourth, silver lavallier; fifth, silver lavallier and a bronze medal to each girl finishing in this event.

In all other events, including the 50-yard dash for girls under forty, the prizes are, first, gold pin and pearl set; second, gold medal; third, combination gold and silver medal; fourth, silver medal; fifth, bronze medal.

COALITION IS CALLED BY KKKLUX KLAN

(Continued from First Page.)

release is finished, now that the Klan has lost its power in America. That was our principal fight before. But I want to tell you that the Klan is not done yet. We do not intend to see any one religious group, under the direction of a religious political machine, gain control of this government.

"What specific religious machine do you refer to?" he was asked. "I mean the National Catholic Aeternity of Washington. And I mean the high politicians that sought their offices simply to tighten the grip of their religion on this nation."

Asked for specific "outlets," he named Mayor James M. Curley of Boston and Senator David I. Walsh. The pamphlet that, it is believed, started the split, was in the form of an attack on Cardinal Pothier, Archbishop of Munich, who spoke recently at St. John's Seminary, Brighton.

One paragraph of the circular, it is said, states the time of the entire communication, which was sent to all members of the Coalition. It is as follows:

"The 'Loyal Coalition' is the field to prevent the long arm of Rome from reaching out to make America dominantly Catholic. Roman Catholicism is the enemy of the American people. We urge restricted immigration to prevent the influx of alien Roman Catholic countries. WAKE UP! LAVAL AMERICANS. TO THIS DANGER!"

It was this paragraph that caused many of the more liberal-minded members to resign from the Coalition. It was this paragraph that is expected to turn many others against the organization that was originally formed as a political group but that has now taken religion into its fight.

NEW OFFER BY STRESEMANN

(Continued from First Page.)

of control over the Ruhr, re-establishment of the conditions in the Rhineland vouchsafed her under the Versailles treaty, and the liberation of every German citizen who has been outraged, evicted or imprisoned.

The statement was made in his inaugural address to the Reichstag. Dr. Stresemann made no mention of evacuation of the occupied areas, merely stressing the conditions under which Germany is prepared to enter upon negotiations for the complete restoration of her jurisdiction and the freedom of her citizens there.

The new chancellor was cordially greeted by the majority of the house, the only hostile note in his reception being in the form of boisterous heckling from the Communists.

More Than 80 Killed in Rioting of Germans

Aix-Le-Chapelle, Aug. 14 (AP).—

Twelve persons were killed and more than eighty were wounded here last night when crowds attempted to storm the police headquarters and rescue prisoners taken there the police broke up a food shortage demonstration.

This brings the total number of slain in German rioting since Sunday up to more than eighty and the wounded to more than 300. In yesterday's demonstration four Germans were killed and forty wounded.

Reports of rioting in Hanover said twenty persons were slain there and fifteen are declared killed in Zettzhausen. Rioting is still in progress in Neisse, Saxony.

FIRES GUN IN FIGHT WITH COP

(Continued from First Page.)

all day yesterday without success but he appeared early today. Apparently becoming suspicious the youth drew a gun as he entered the house. The police seized him and turned the struggle over to the women. He was discharged. He was now placed and placed under arrest. He is said to have a criminal record in New Bedford.

Entry for Girls' N. E. Championship Swimming Races; Direction of Boston American.

Full Name Address Age Club Telephone Registration No.

Please enter me in mile open half mile novice fifty-yard dash for girls under 14; fifty-yard dash for mothers; fifty-yard dash; 100-yard dash.

Mail to Swimming Editor, Boston American, Boston, Mass.

R.H. White Co.

Mail Orders Filled—Boston 8. Telephone Orders Filled—Beach 3100.

Wednesday and Thursday

Women's Canton Crepe Gowns $25.00

The gown sketched is pleated back and front. Beaded sleeves and side panels.

Another model has side pleated panels. Skirt is draped, girder and sleeves are trimmed with beads. Navy and black. Size 36 to 44.

Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Untrimmed Felt Hats $1.40

Adaptable for sports, wear. Close fitting shapes, medium size shapes, in a shirt room, in a shirt room, in a shirt room, in a shirt room.

pokes or turn-up brims. Black and the newest fall colors.

Second Floor, North

Wednesday and Thursday

Misses' Over-plaid Coats $20.60

Tailored style with large pockets, fully lined. Colors: Tan, light and dark brown.

Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Juniors' and Misses' Corsettes 94c

Made of pink "Dobby" cloth, side fastening, with elastic sections on the sides, two pairs of these supporters. Sizes 12 to 18.

"Vogue" Girdles $1.25

10-inch model of elastic with back and front sections of plain pink coutil. Sizes 28 to 36.

Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Misses' Crepe de Chine Dresses $9.35

Long line crepe de chine dresses, four different models, trimmed with embroidery or plaiting of material. Navy, brown, cocoa and black. Sizes 14, 16, 18 years.

Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Boys' Jwanta (I-want-a) Madras Pajamas $1.23

Two-piece style, neat stripes, trimmed with trops. Brown, black, blue, lavender and green stripes. Sizes 8 to 18 years.

Boys' Own Store, Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Fiber Tuxedo Sweaters $5.00

Mostly rack bottom, striped and black. Navy, buff, gray, black, orchid and Harline blue.

Second Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Men's "White Star" Brand Fiber Half Hose, 35c pr. 3 prs. for $1.00

Black, navy, suede, and cordovan. Sizes 9 1/2 to 12.

Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Imported Novelty Bead Necklaces, 75c each

Graduated strands of round beads with metal connector links. 30-inch length. 4 pastel shades, amber, jade, rose and blue.

Walnut Room, Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

32-Inch Madras Shirting, 40c yard

36-Inch Lining Sateen, Black and White, 53c yard

Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Nickel Plated Tea Kettles $1.00

Five-quart size, straight spout, heavy nickel plated copper.

Kitchen Furnishings, Basement

Of Course Your Boy Will Get The Job

Mother is the Health Doctor

Mother knows that healthy color comes from healthy skin. She knows that when skin is healthy it has been well treated by the right soap. There is no doubt that will color unattractive skin or unattractive skin. So mothers recommend Lifebuoy.

NO business man could resist those clear eyes, that alert, sturdy body. He sees in your boy the qualities of success, of a future partner—the courage, intelligence and stamina of perfect health.

It was you, his mother, who gave to him this health, who nourished it in childhood—and it is you who must protect it now from the very real dangers which will surround him.

Character and Health

You must also continue the development of his character. Both health and character are founded largely on cleanliness. Mothers must teach their boys that cleanliness should mean not only a clean looking skin, but a skin which has been protected.

Germs are not visible—but they are deadly. They are on almost everything one touches. Uge your boy to purify his hands and face with a true health soap. That is his surest protection.

Lifebuoy has become the most widely used toilet soap in the world for two reasons:

First, the world-wide fight against dirt as the direct cause of nearly all communicable disease.

Second, the recognition by mothers in every civilized country that Lifebuoy really combats the danger of dirt germs.

The creamy, copious lather of Lifebuoy carries deep into every pore a wonderful antiseptic, bland and kindly to the skin but ruthless to all impurities.

Lifebuoy Protects

Lifebuoy is absolutely pure. Its rich vegetable oils of palm fruit and coconut are soothing to tender skin and provide an active stimulation which keeps the skin in perfect condition—soft, sweet and beautiful.

Its wholesome cleanly odor tells you that Lifebuoy is a true health soap—the odor vanishes almost instantly.

Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

For the protection of your husband and children, place a cake of Lifebuoy at every place where there is running water

BOTH SIDES TO JOIN PARLEY IN COAL CRISIS

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 14.—John L. Leach, President of the United Mine Workers of America, in the second of his speeches at the Federal coal conference here today for New York television with the coal operators and officials present in an effort to avert a crisis in the coal supply.

Saying it was his duty to represent the miners' side in the conference, Leach said that the miners were ready to meet the operators on any basis that would result in a settlement of the coal crisis.

President Coolidge, speaking of the coal crisis and the role of the miners and the operators in the coal crisis, said that the miners were ready to meet the operators on any basis that would result in a settlement of the coal crisis.

GIRL MAYOR OF OHIO TOWN QUITS JOB

Portland, Me., Aug. 14.—The girl mayor of Portland, Me., who was elected to the office of mayor of the city of Portland, Me., has resigned her office today.

The girl mayor, who was elected to the office of mayor of the city of Portland, Me., has resigned her office today.

VETERAN PRIEST IS DEAD IN PORTLAND

Portland, Me., Aug. 14.—James J. Murphy, a veteran priest of the city of Portland, Me., died today.

Murphy, who was a veteran priest of the city of Portland, Me., died today.

MILLION MARKS FOR A POUND OF BUTTER

Boston, Aug. 14.—The price of butter today was $1,000,000 a pound.

The price of butter today was $1,000,000 a pound.

DEATH CAR DRIVER HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Boston, Aug. 14.—The driver of the car which killed a woman today was held without bail.

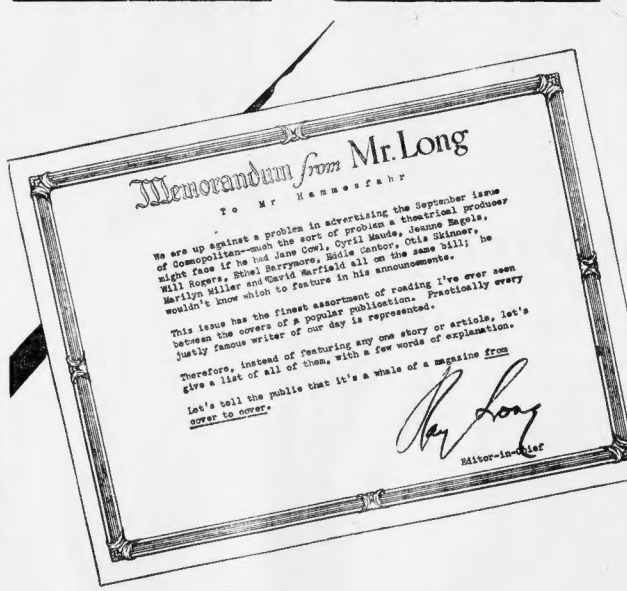

The driver of the car which killed a woman today was held without bail.

MAIL TRUCK DRIVER PAYS FINE IN LYNN

Lynn, Mass., Aug. 14.—A mail truck driver was fined today for driving too fast.

The mail truck driver was fined today for driving too fast.

"A whale of a Magazine from Cover to Cover"

IN SEPTEMBER
NOW ON SALE!

Cosmopolitan

What can I get for my old car? Where shall I send my child to school? How far can I travel and what can I see for $500? Where can I get new ideas about foods and entertainments? Write Cosmopolitan Service Department, 219 West 40th Street, New York City

The Unbroken Chain
by Irvin S. Cobb
A weird tale of two convicts and two convicts of their lives and a long island journey.

The Garbage Man's Daughter
by Stephen Benet
A 1923 model love story.

Seven Candles
by Fannie Hurst
A story of a woman who lived happily so much she wanted to kill her.

Ali Diab
by Albert Payson Terhune
A famous writer's account of his friendship with an unusual man.

Never the Twain Shall Meet
by Peter B. Kyne
Mr. Kyne's new novel. The story of the lives of two women for one man.

Thumbs Down
by Adela Rogers St. Johns
A story of a woman who lived happily so much she wanted to kill her.

Soft-Boiled New York
by O. O. McIntyre
Most likely to succeed in a hard-boiled town. This is proof of the opposite.

The Mysterious Woman
by George Weston
The love story of a girl who was kidnapped by a secret family.

Love and Learn
by H. C. Witwer
A new romance in story.

The Hope of Happiness
by Meredith Nicholson
A vital novel of American life.

Synthetic Adventure
by John T. McCutcheon
Humorous story of what goes on in the minds of two men in love.

A Gentleman Comes to Five Corners
by James Oliver Curwood
A romantic love story in this famous author's novel in the Lake Superior wilderness.

The Knife
by Gouverneur Morris
A 99-100% true story of a shipwrecked girl on a desert island.

That Night: the Vandercenter Mansion
by Kathleen Norris
Irish wit that makes you laugh with a child and grin through thirty years.

The Lone Wolf Returns
by Louis Joseph Vance
The conclusion of an intensely interesting mystery novel.

Ukridge Sees Her Through
by P. G. Wodehouse
A new batch of humor from the great genius of London.

A Dissertation on Luck
by GEORGE ALLEN, a travelogue in verse by BRISTON BRADLEY, and a poem by FRANCESCA FALE MILLER.

Jordan Marsh Company
Great Basement Store

Wednesday and Thursday
Two days of extra special values in our
BANNER BARGAIN SALE

Mail and Telephone Orders will be filled as long as the quantities last

BOSTON CABOTS BALK AT LETTING KABOTCHNICKS TAKE NAME

OPPOSE PETITION OF ALIENS

Philadelphia Court Told Change Would Mislead as to Their Ancestry

"This is the city of Boston. The home of the bean and the cod. Where the Lovells speak only to rabbits And the Cabots speak only to God."

Disregarding the tradition of

MARION (LEFT) AND HARRIET BARKER AND LADDIE BOY Children of their service agent Barker of Newtonville, to whom Mrs. Harding presented her husband's pet, eagerly await the time-honored verse wherein the Cabots speak only to their Creator, the Cabots spoke to Harry H. and Myrtle Kabotchnik of Philadelphia, and they didn't say it with flowers. The Kabotchnicks found their name a trifle clumsy. They petitioned the Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia for permission to assume the "chick" and change the initial letter to "C." "Kabot" would have been all right, they conceded to the court, but "Cabot" looked better, and was more American.

But the Pennsylvania Society of the Order of Founders and Patriots of America, and several members of the Cabot family, represented by counsel, objected. Assumption of the name, it was argued, would mislead persons as to the origin and ancestry of the petitioners. Objection was made in the name of Judge Frederick Pickering, Chief of Boston, Attorney George E. and Frederick B. Cabot, the Massachusetts bar, Dr. Hugh Cabot, dean of the Medical School of the University of Michigan, and Philip Cabot, head of the St. George School, Newport, R. I.

Counsel for the Cabots explained the name Cabot had been associated with English and American history from the time of the discovery of the American continent.

DIVISION RESERVES. To permit petitioners of foreign birth to assume the name would constitute an unjust interference with the right of persons now using the historical name, counsel argued. The court held the petition under advisement.

Biographers have often hinted that the New England Cabots are descended from the great Italian explorer John Cabot, whose name was originally spelled Caboto, who while in the service of King Henry VII of England, 70 years before the birth of Shakespeare, explored a part of the coast of North America. However, there seems to be no

KIDDIES AWAIT COMING OF HARDING'S PET

MARION (LEFT) AND HARRIET BARKER AND LADDIE BOY Children of their service agent Barker of Newtonville, to whom Mrs. Harding presented her husband's pet, eagerly await for any such claim. The Cabots who have become famous in New England, appear to have for their first known ancestor George Cabot of Salem, born in 1524, who went to sea as a common sailor, became an accomplished navigator and a rich shipping merchant, one of Massachusetts' first Senators in Philadelphia for permission to assume the "chick" and change the initial letter to "C." "Kabot" would have been all right, they conceded to the court, but "Cabot" looked better, and was more American.

But the Pennsylvania Society of the Order of Founders and Patriots of America, and several members of the Cabot family, represented by counsel, objected. Assumption of the name, it was argued, would mislead persons as to the origin and ancestry of the petitioners. Objection was made in the name of Judge Frederick Pickering, Chief of Boston, Attorney George E. and Frederick B. Cabot, the Massachusetts bar, Dr. Hugh Cabot, dean of the Medical School of the University of Michigan, and Philip Cabot, head of the St. George School, Newport, R. I.

Counsel for the Cabots explained the name Cabot had been associated with English and American history from the time of the discovery of the American continent.

DIVISION RESERVES. To permit petitioners of foreign birth to assume the name would constitute an unjust interference with the right of persons now using the historical name, counsel argued. The court held the petition under advisement.

Biographers have often hinted that the New England Cabots are descended from the great Italian explorer John Cabot, whose name was originally spelled Caboto, who while in the service of King Henry VII of England, 70 years before the birth of Shakespeare, explored a part of the coast of North America. However, there seems to be no

LADDIE BOY TO HAVE NEW HOME IN NEWTON

Laddie Boy, America's most famous dog, is to make his home in Newtonville. Henry L. Barker, secret service man who had guarded the Hardings for two years and to whom Mrs. Harding gave the President's pet, lives at No. 19 Elmwood Park, Newtonville. Laddie boy has not left Washington yet. His new master is now at the White House, assisting Mrs. Harding in her preparations for departure. And back in Newtonville, the Barker family are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the renowned Avondale.

To Russell Barker will fall the special care of Laddie boy. In fact, he is anxious to have his new "pet" with him that he expects to go to Washington this week to meet Laddie boy back to Boston. Russell is a student of Newton high school. And Laddie boy becomes the school mascot.

3 RESCUED AS AUTO BACKS INTO LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Worrell and their son Kenneth, eight years old, of No. 515 Beacon avenue, Medford Hillside, narrowly escaped drowning when their automobile became unmanageable and backed over a six-foot bank into the waters of Mystic Upper Lake at Winchester. William Murray, a Sandy Beach life saver, Paulmann P. K. Sims of the Metropolitan Park Police, and Clarence Anderson, Grove place, Winchester, a passerby, heard the screams of the motorists as the car went over the bank, and swam to the rescue. After a desperate struggle in the water, in which the rescuers had difficulty in freeing the motorists from their automobile, the entire party was taken to shore. Anderson, the first to arrive, dived into the lake and swam to shore with the boy, who fell clear of the automobile when it went over the embankment before the rescuers. Murray, the life guard, and Paul-

New Dog to Take Laddie Boy's Place at White House

Washington, Aug. 14.—A successor to Laddie Boy is expected to arrive at the White House soon after President and Mrs. Coolidge move into the Executive residence. The Coolidge boys, Calvin and John, already have selected their mascot, it was learned today, and are now trying to name it. It was suggested today that the new White House dog may bear the name of Plymouth Rock.

BULLET TAKEN FROM BODY OF MAD SLAYER

Fall River, Aug. 14.—Physicians at the City Hospital succeeded in removing one of the three bullets which were sent into the body of John E. Kennedy by Mounted Officer Daniel Sullivan after the former man Sims arrived before Anderson reached the shore. Murray rescued Mrs. Worrell, and Paulmann Sims assisted the husband and father in reaching land. According to Worrell, he had taken his wife and son for a pleasure drive, and was turning the car to return home when the accident occurred. Backing the car, he said, the accelerator stuck and held the wheels wide open. The car backed over the embankment before the brakes could be applied.

Chicago Barbers to Cut Prices for Bald Heads

Chicago, Aug. 14.—The Journeymen Barbers' Union, all of them big-hearted fellows, officially recognized gentlemen with shiny pate as a suffering class, just like widows, orphans and drunkards' daughters. If all the bald men of Chicago will get together, the union announced, and show that there is a concerted demand for it, the union will authorize a slightly reduced price for trimming what remains of their heads. Overnight the journeymen came to the realization that it is manifestly unfair to charge the same price as they do for full growths.

WOMAN SOUGHT IN BLACKHAND SLAYING

A woman is under police surveillance and a man is sought, in connection with the slaying of James Torrell, North End resident, who was shot to death in Hanover street near Hatter, Sunday night. Scores of Italians witnessed the shooting. Many of them could not identify the slayer, according to the police, but are prevented by numerous secret societies from assisting the police. The woman under surveillance is believed to have been used as a "decoy," and to have entered Torrell's (last her room, soon before the shooting. The dead man's hat and coat were found in the woman's apartment. Authorities believe Torrell was "framed." Children who witnessed the shooting gave the police a meagre description of the slayer. Two granite and three patrolmen are tracing clues.

LOCKHART'S

59¢ DAY WEDNESDAY

MY LOCKHART "MILL-END" FIFTY-NINE-CENT DAY TOMORROW. COMPARE AND RECKON THE MERCHANDISE OFFERED BY WHAT FIFTY-NINE CENTS WILL USUALLY BUY. Estimate your earning capacity for the time you spend at my 59¢ Day tomorrow. Look on the abundance of the different lots and their resources to be distributed tomorrow as a reward to the devoted men and women who never fail on my "Mill-End" 59¢ Day.

C. A. Lockhart.

Houghton & Dutton Company

Tremont and Beacon Streets, Boston 2, Mass.

We Give and Receive Legal Stamps

Boys' Wash Suits 59c

Made from Devonshire cloth, in plain and striped patterns, flannel, long or short sleeves; sizes 3 and 4 years only.

Women's Union Suits 59c

Pin check, muslin, athletic style, sizes 36 to 42. Our regular price $1.00 each. Also the cotton union suit, low neck and sleeves, at the same low price.

Glass Table Sets 59c

Nine pieces, one Colonial glass covered butter dish, one light cut glass chocolate handled olive dish and six handled sherbet glasses. Limited quantity. No call or phone orders.

Candlesticks 59c

Solid mahogany, fancy turned Colonial style, with brass ferrule top, felled base; two styles to select from.

Vacuum Bottles 59c

One-pint size, black metal case, aluminum screw cap.

Wash Tubs 59c

Very heavy grade, galvanized ware, 20-inch size.

Coal Hod and Water Pail 59c

One heavy grade, 15-inch size coal hod and 8-quart galvanized water pail.

Adjustable Wall Dryers 59c

8 drying arms, can be raised or lowered and folded flat against the wall.

Bed Sheets, Each 59c

Torn size 72x90, made from good quality cotton, limit 3 to each customer. No call or phone orders.

Table Napkins, 12 for 59c

Suitable for boarding houses and restaurants.

Hemmed Diapers, 4 for 59c

Size 18x36 and 20x40.

Dish Towels, 4 for 59c

Size 15x30, made from good quality crash.

Table Damask, Yard 59c

72 inches wide, heavy mercerized cotton, attractive patterns.

Boys' Wash Trousers, 59c

Of gray crash and khaki; sizes 8 to 16 years.

Infants' Nightgowns, 59c

Good quality cotton flannel, with draw strings at lower edge; sizes 1 and 2 years.

Infants' Vests and Bands, Each 59c

"Baby Pak" brand, cotton and wool mixed. This well-known make needs no introduction to mothers. Sizes up to 3 years.

Terry Cloth, Yard 59c

Duplex terry cloth, in remnant lengths.

Tea and Coffee for 59c

One lb. of Far East Coffee and 1/4 lb. of Far East Pekoe Tea.

Crab Meat and Mayonnaise, 59c

One can Nanco Crab Meat and one 8-oz. jar Dorco Mayonnaise.

Hat Bows, Each 59c

Of moist fall ribbon, in plain colors and two-tone effects.

Moulded Hot Water Bottles, 59c

DRUG-SECOND FLOOR

Toilet Paper, 10 Large Rolls, 59c

DRUG-SECOND FLOOR

Men's Handkerchiefs 6 for 59c

Plain and satin striped, all white, some with colored woven stripe borders; full size.

Swing Photo Frames Each 59c

Gift frames in the popular photo sizes, measuring up to 7x10 inches.

Men's Shirts 59c

Of fine cotton percales in a large variety of patterns, with soft attached collars; sizes 14 1/2 to 17.

Women's Stockings Pair 59c

Silk and fibre, in black and a few colors, with cotton garter tops and soles; irregular. Excellent for vacation wear or bathing.

Muslin Sash Curtains Pair 59c

Fine dotted and block patterns, hemmed, ready for the rod.

Children's Pumps Pair 59c

Mixed assortment, white canvas, one-strap effect, serviceable soles; will give good service; splendid for beach wear. Sizes 8 1/2 to 11.

Children's Roller Skates Pair 59c

With leather heel and toe straps, adjustable to fit shoes up to size one.

Congoleum Floor Covering Sq. Yd. 59c

Your choice of several attractive patterns. Our regular price of first quality is 85c. This lot is slightly imperfect.

Boys' Mixture Pants 59c

Of good, strong wearing fabrics; will give excellent service; sizes 4 to 14 only.

A New Way to Serve Onions

You've had them boiled, fried and stewed, now Bake them. Bake them, very dry, bake in a slow oven one hour and serve with a dressing made of 3 parts melted butter and 1 part

LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE

THE ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE

More Milk—Better Health

And so will you when you know how good milk is as a food to keep you fit in hot weather—if you are not already one of the vast number of those who now eat milk.

New England Dairy and Food Council 19

Magazine Page

A Floating Hotel

THE Swedish city of Gothenburg for its tercentennial exhibition this Summer, plans to use the old liner La Touraine as a floating hotel for visitors. The vessel will be close to shore, connected with it by a pontoon bridge.

Masks—Which?

A black and white line drawing of a woman with short, dark, wavy hair and bangs, wearing a floral dress and a pearl necklace. She is looking to the left. To her left is a large, stylized face with long, flowing hair, looking towards her. To her right is another large, stylized face with curly hair, looking away. In the bottom left corner, there is a cluster of small, stylized faces. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, stylized face looking up. The drawing is signed 'B. J. 1931' in the bottom right corner.

DRAWN BY
POPINI

SECRETS OF HEALTH AND SUCCESS

By Charles A. L. Reed, M. D.
Former President of the American Medical Association.

I'm fighting an army which is the last man never my renders, we have routed the enemy from many of his strongholds and have reduced our own casualties by fifty per cent. It would look as if we have won about a fifty per cent victory.

This is our position at the end of the nineteenth year of peralistent and aggressive warfare on tuberculosis. In this time the annual death rate from this cause has been reduced from 250 to about 100 in every 100,000 of population.

Dr. Reed.

A black and white portrait of a man with dark, wavy hair, wearing a suit and tie. He is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a serious expression. The background is dark and out of focus.

Stop the breeding of the plant—the tubercle bacillus—by eradicating the conditions—dark and dirty homes and workshops—under which it breeds.

Stop the communication of the plant from person to person by isolating its victims and by destroying sputum and other discharges in which it occurs.

Keep up the resistance of those who are affected by giving them rest, fresh air and plenty of food.

Prevent the invasion of all healthy persons by keeping their defenses at the height of efficiency. These are, first, the protective layer of the body—the skin and the mucous membrane of the mouth, throat and lungs. Second, the blood, with its germ-killing elements. Third, the nervous energy shown by muscular power and healthy mental poise—the dynamics of the human system.

The whole program emphasizes the prenatal care of the expectant mothers, fresh air and nourishing food for under-nourished children, proper personal hygiene, limitation of child labor, sanitary habits— isolation of all infected persons and intelligent medical supervision.

Help the tuberculosis movement in your community by every means in your power. It isn't charity alone that dictates your help. Not to aid, not to see that the above suggestions are observed in your home and your neighborhood may mean a loved one lost.

Observe these suggestions and tuberculosis probably will never trouble you.

Copyright, 1929, King Readers' Digest Inc.

WATCH AS COMPASS

By GARRETT P. SERVIS

Famous Astronomer and Writer on Scientific Topics of Popular Interest.

experiment at 4 p. m., south will lie over the figure 2 on the dial, which is situated half way between the 4 o'clock mark pointing toward the sun, and the 12 o'clock mark on the dial.

mark on the dial.

You make the experiment in the forenoon, then in setting the hour hand upon the sun you will, for the same reason as before, automatically shift the 12 o'clock mark as far west of south as the hour hand, pointing to the sun is east of south, and, as before the meridian will be half way between the hour hand and the 12 o'clock mark. Say, for instance, that you turn the hand upon the sun at 9 o'clock in the morning; then half past ten on the dial will indicate the direction of the south point.

Of course, it is understood that the indications thus obtained are only approximate though near enough to the truth to be often very useful.

are divided into hour spaces each fifteen degrees long, thus corresponding with the actual angular movements of the sun, and with them it will be found that whenever the hour hand is pointed upon the sun, the 24-hour mark on the dial indicates the direction south. It is easy to make a card-board dial of this kind for experimentation. Such a dial set in the meridian shows the direction of the sun at any hour of the night.

HOW TO SLEEP ON A BARE FLOOR

IT is more a matter of SLEEP, than of bed or board.

Some people can sleep sitting up, standing up, even while walking.

Many people can't sleep in the softest of downy beds; and all of us suffer occasionally from nerve-racking, wearing, tiring wakefulness at night.

There is always a reason for sleeplessness. Usually, it's a "sour" stomach, a liver that has "Main down" on the job, congested bowels, or biliousness.

Then, just before retiring, take Beecham's Pills. They soothe an uneasy stomach, encourage the organs of digestion and elimination to natural activity, and assure restful sleep no matter what!

At All Drugstores—25c and 50c

BEST PATTERNS 10c

YOUR CHOICE OF LATEST STYLES
The Boston American offers today more of its new and stylish dress patterns at a price never before equaled elsewhere. It will cost from 15c to $1 to duplicate these patterns anywhere else. Orders MUST be on OFFICIAL COUPON.

A SIMPLE STYLE FOR PORCH WEAR OR, FOR SERVICE.

And, very unique and quite attractive is the "Kercher" model.
This will develop a graceful look,
and it is designed for either linen or in the new rayon weave.
Figured neck with facings of white spray would be cool and pretty.

The pattern is cut to fit. Sizes:
26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42
and 44 inches bust measure. Each size requires 3½ yds. of 29-inch material. For collar, cuffs and fa-cings of contrasting material yard will be required. The width at

ONE OF THE SEASON'S SMARTEST FASHIONS

42-inch in a classic model made with contrasting brook and two-piece flare skirt. The neck is finished with the popular "kercher" collar.
The sleeves may be finished with a wrist length "peascod" portion, or the nearest—no cuff!—is shown here shown "peascod" cuff. A can-tore was used, with band of black crepe. This is a good model for finesse. This a good model for linen and pongee.

The pattern is cut to fit. Sizes: 26,
28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44
and 46 inches bust measure. Each size requires 3½ yds. of 29-inch material. A 38-inch size will require 8¼ yards of 26-inch material.

WHAT THE STARS SAY

LUCKY DAY TO INVEST
TODAY'S horoscope is unimportant, showing the probability of affairs moving along in the routine groove, with little to excite or perplex in either business or domestic affairs. It is a good day to invest.

Those whose birthday it is may expect affairs to move in the usual groove, quietly and satisfactorily, in domestic and business concerns. A child born on this day is likely to have a quiet and uneventful life.

Beware of taking a long journey today.

TELL THIS AT DINNER

The disconsolate-looking tramp was sitting with his back to the fence, eating scraps of food he had picked out of a pile of newspaper.

Presently a woman, out of a stall with her pet dog, came along. The little animal soon recognized the food and immediately ran up to the tramp and tried to take something out of the basket. The tramp's grimy face immediately became suffused with a smile, which he had put down on his face, and he said, "Thank you in that sort of a person."

"Shall I throw this little dog a bit?" asked the tramp, as her pet still sniffed at the food.

"The woman said, 'No, it's

CORRECT MANNERS

By MRS. CORNELIUS BECKMAN.
DEAR MRS. BECKMAN,
A program was given by some members of our school on "music." When the pupils finished reciting, the teachers let us hear some opera records on a gramophone. Was it correct to applaud? J. H. P.
YES, it is proper to applaud after a record has been played. Such applause is a spontaneous and high tribute to the singer and to the composition itself. One can give his enthusiastic testimonial to the spirit of an artistic composition without having the person present. We all saw that, and we all see it is the applause after a Caruso record.

HEROINES OF HISTORY

CHARLOTTE M. YONGE, WRITER
On Mark Twain's Life ★ This brilliant author realized her son Mark Stuyvesant. "The woman with ambition when the ship first left carrying supplies for a splendid expedition and in the cabin a band of misadventures to her to the heaten of that part of the world the people of Christianity which meant so much to her. When she published her famous book "The Day Chalk" she

This woman—with the spirit of the adventurer alive in her breast and a constant longing to give to the ignorant the comfort which she herself had received from the literature endowed with a wonderful will. She could write with feeling and such comforting attack that when her book, "The Power of Reality," was published drew the attention of the nation.

Charlotte M. Yonge was born in England in 1823. She was therefore her long and useful life ended in 1901, she had written more than one hundred and twenty volumes, which is astonishing to know, were nearly all successful.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Thinly cut rashers of bacon, onion and fried croutons and serve on a small plate of fried bread or on a slice of grilled tomato, look much more than thick rashers, differently cooked and served.

To make brooms fresh and clean, dip into a pail of boiling oil and stir in the sun.

Brush the legs of old stockings with fat, wash, and use as rags or floor polishing.

Meat should not be washed. It can be cleaned by wiping with a Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growth Use Delatone.

(Beauty Culture)

Here is a method for removing hair from arms, neck, back or face that is unfeeling and is quite inexpensive. It is a thick cream with some powerful chemicals and water and spread very surface. After it is applied, rub it off, wash the skin and dry it. The hair will fall out. No harm or inconvenience results from this treatment, but be careful to get genuine Delatone and not a cheap one as it is so fresh as wanted.

USE DELATONE

Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growths

Use Delatone.
(Beauty Culture)

Here is a method for removing hair from arms, neck or face that is unfailling and is quite inexpensive. Mix a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water and spread on hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes, rub it off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. No harm or inconvenience results from this treatment, but be careful to get genuine delatone and mix fresh as wanted.

USE DELATONE

Cuticura Cares For Your Skin And Hair

Make Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum your every-day toilet preparations and you will keep your skin and hair in perfect condition. The Soap cleanses, the Ointment to heal and the Talcum to powder.

Prepared by Wm. L. Chas. Cuticura Laboratories, New York, N. Y. Sold everywhere. Beware of cheap imitations. Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum, Cuticura Inc., New York, N. Y. Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum, Cuticura Inc., New York, N. Y.

USE DELATONE

Boston American Dress Pattern Coupon

Pattern No. Size Pattern No. Size
 Pattern No. Size Pattern No. Size
 Name
 Street
 City or Town State
 Fill out and mail (enclosing 10 cents for each pattern) to PATTERN
EDITOR, Boston American (mag.) Summer No., Boston 9, Mass.

By GERTRUDE ATHERTON

By Arrangement with Associated First National Pictures, Inc., in whose film Version Corinne Griffith Will Appear as Countess Zatlaby

[illegible]

EVERYDAY MISTAKES

RIGHT AND WRONG IN SPEECH

EVERYDAY MISTAKES

RIGHT AND WRONG IN SPEECH

[illegible][illegible]

... on the ...

Opportunity to work way through school, make up previous credits. For catalog, address Registrar, Box 245, Chicago Industrial School, 3832 Shore Ave., Chicago.

ACH the heart.
Non habit formidat

Scratches Faint Stings
Wounds Pimples Piles

44 off druggists

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

State

SPORTING AMERICAN

BRITONS BEST U. S. IN BABY YACHT RACE

W. Stewart, one of the American yachtmen, is shown above on board the "Blank" in the start of the contest.

BRAVES HOME FOR TWIN BILL WITH CUBS

Larsen Says He Can Kayo Firpo

WOLF HERE TO BATTLE ROBINSON

By JACK CONWAY
Wolf Larsen, ex-convict fighter, believes he can defeat Lou Firpo, Wild Bull of the Pampas. "I have the punch to knock him out," said Larsen after a workout at Kelly & Elmer's, where he is preparing for his second bout with George Roberson, which will be the first of a series of fights at the Garden. "I am a real fighter," he said, "and I will show it to the world."

Leading Home Run Hitters of Season

Name	Cl.	Runs
W. T. Amos	Br.	89
C. W. Smith	Br.	87
W. B. Davis	Br.	81
W. B. Davis	Br.	81
W. B. Davis	Br.	81
W. B. Davis	Br.	81
W. B. Davis	Br.	81
W. B. Davis	Br.	81
W. B. Davis	Br.	81
W. B. Davis	Br.	81

W. T. Amos, Boston, 89 runs.
C. W. Smith, Boston, 87 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.
W. B. Davis, Boston, 81 runs.

4 GAMES ON CARD FOR TWIN FANS

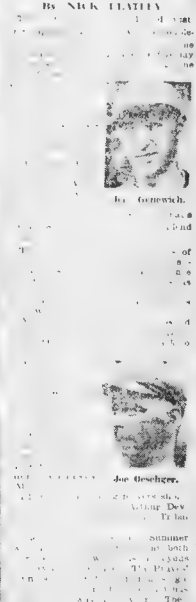

Four games will be scheduled for the Twin fans this season. The first game will be played on August 1st, and the last game will be played on September 1st. The games will be played at the Garden, and the fans will have a chance to see some of the best fighters in the world.

WILL MITCHELL BE WITH THE TRIBE NEXT YEAR?

Fred Mitchell, Braves pilot, who may be replaced by new pilot before the 1924 season gets under way.

NEW BLOOD TO BUILD UP TEAM

Fred Mitchell, Braves pilot, who may be replaced by new pilot before the 1924 season gets under way.

TODAY'S SCORE CARD

The Only Evening Paper in Boston to Publish Final Scores of the Ball Games and Daily Batting Averages

Braves	Cubs
AB BHBV	AB BHBV
Pettit, 1st, 302 85 281	Stats, 459 140 305
Powell, 2nd, 316 92 291	Adams, 3rd, 132 35 285
Southworth, 3rd, 418 139 333	Griffin, 4th, 403 112 278
McInnis, 1st, 411 131 319	O'Farrell, 3rd, 316 101 320
Boeckel, 3rd, 385 114 296	Friberg, 3rd, 396 125 316
E. Smith, 3rd, 151 43 285	Miller, 1st, 336 97 289
Ford, 2nd, 256 70 274	Heathcote, 1st, 285 79 277
R. Smith, 3rd, 225 55 244	Kelleher, 1st, 162 53 327
First game	First game
Genewich, 3rd, 45 11 244	Alexander, 3rd, 83 20 241
Second game	Second game
Geachger, 3rd, 40 11 275	Aldridge, 3rd, 40 10 250
Team Average 3622 993 274	Team Average 3703 1087 288

HOW THE CLUBS WILL STAND TONIGHT

Braves	Win	Loss
Braves	311	302
Cubs	332	282

Today's contest is a must for the fans. The Braves and Cubs are both in excellent form, and the game should be a close one. The Braves have a strong pitching staff, and the Cubs have a powerful batting lineup. The game will be played at the Garden, and the fans will have a chance to see some of the best players in the world.

The game will be played at the Garden, and the fans will have a chance to see some of the best players in the world. The Braves and Cubs are both in excellent form, and the game should be a close one.

SAINTS HAND A TENNIS STARS IN WHITEWASH TO VETS INTERNATIONAL TOURNEY

The Saints have won a tennis match against the Veterans in the International Tourney. The match was played at the Garden, and the Saints were victorious. The Veterans were defeated in a straight set.

COCHRAN PAYS $18,000 FOR TWO-YEAR-OLD

Player	Score
Marshall Chess Winner	1-0
Table of Runs	1-0
Days High-Low Scores	1-0

LEGION - WOBURN AT TUFTS OVAL

The Legion and Woburn will play the first game of a series between these teams at Tufts Oval this evening. The game will be played at Tufts Oval, and the fans will have a chance to see some of the best players in the world.

MR. GALLAGHER & MR. SHEAN

The Camorra Color Scheme

The Camorra Color Scheme is a new color scheme for the Camorra. It is a new color scheme for the Camorra, and it is a new color scheme for the Camorra.

Words by Jo Swerling Pictures by Charles Schmidt

Table of Runs

Player	Score
Table of Runs	1-0
Days High-Low Scores	1-0

PETER TOP ALL

Will John Bray, the sixty-year-old winner of Mayor Curley's Swim Cup, keep at the game as long as Peter Curley continued active as a swimmer? Peter celebrated his seventeenth birthday in the B. A. A. Marathon Run.

SPORTING AMERICA

NOT AS ADVERTISED
The first appearance of the British women stars in Yankee competition failed to agree with predictions. However, Miss McKane and her associates will have opportunities for revenge before they sail home.

NO CHANCE FOR GEORGE BIG LIGHT

By SID MERLER

New York, Aug. 14.—The Summer of Harry W.P.'s discontent is completed as an interested in the future of local promoters to public at the chance to match the patient stevedore with Jack Dempsey as permit him to do the business building that would be necessary. Richard has never seemed interested in a fight with Dempsey.

Thinking men eventually had the opinion that Dempsey and W.P. would be a real test of attraction than Dempsey, who provided the champion, however, of the American rival in impressive fashion.

NETHER RICHARD NO-

JOHNSON SEEMS INTERESTED

Neither T. K. Howard nor John Johnson, who control the city outdoor arenas, has shown any weight championship interest in a fight with W.P. on Wills and Dempsey, late in September or early in October. Howard says there are no definite dates at the Yankee Stadium at the end of the baseball season. Howard says he will follow the first fight with two or three weeks.

CANNOT TAKE CHANCES

WITH OUTDOOR MATCHES

With Jack Kearns in New York, with Dempsey and the local promoters, who control the city outdoor arenas, has shown any weight championship interest in a fight with W.P. on Wills and Dempsey, late in September or early in October. Howard says there are no definite dates at the Yankee Stadium at the end of the baseball season. Howard says he will follow the first fight with two or three weeks.

WILL JONES

BEAT THE NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 14.—Harry Cook, manager of Floyd Johnson, Tommy Egan and a stable of boxers, will handle the local fight of Jones, recently defeated lightweight champion in the state decision.

CONCORD TOWN NINE

DEFEATS AVER, 4 TO 2

The Concord Town baseball team defeated the Aver team 4 to 2 in a game played on the Concord playground before a large crowd. King Kiedy Averbach, Fred Kiedy, a Concord pitcher, pitched the game and was found for seven runs.

Veteran Swimmer, 60, Tells How He Beat Youngsters in Light Test

John Bray, 60, winner of the Mayor Curley's Swim Cup.

John Bray, 60, winner of the Mayor Curley's Swim Cup, who won in Boston Light swim, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

By CHURCH J. PARKER
"Put a little heat into it."

So remarked grandpa John J. Bray to one of the lucky lopers in his Providence street blacksmith shop, and in order that the helper would get his point, Grandpa Bray grasped a heavy sled and ran and proceeded plowing it vigorously on the white hot bar of steel that lay across the anvil—he "put a little heat into it."

BRAY HOLDS WORLD'S

SWIMMING RECORD

The record book of Light swim accomplishment of John J. Bray, the sixty-year-old winner of the Mayor Curley's swim cup, has brought to their feet the regular swimmers, and they had to be startled when he declared a well-known matchmaker, "I would simply provide a full push for a good job. As the champion would be a real test of attraction than Dempsey, who provided the champion, however, of the American rival in impressive fashion."

WILL JONES

BEAT THE NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 14.—Harry Cook, manager of Floyd Johnson, Tommy Egan and a stable of boxers, will handle the local fight of Jones, recently defeated lightweight champion in the state decision.

CONCORD TOWN NINE

DEFEATS AVER, 4 TO 2

The Concord Town baseball team defeated the Aver team 4 to 2 in a game played on the Concord playground before a large crowd. King Kiedy Averbach, Fred Kiedy, a Concord pitcher, pitched the game and was found for seven runs.

SIX REFUSES TO RADIO - The Great Indoor Sport

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

WILL JONES

BEAT THE NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 14.—Harry Cook, manager of Floyd Johnson, Tommy Egan and a stable of boxers, will handle the local fight of Jones, recently defeated lightweight champion in the state decision.

CONCORD TOWN NINE

DEFEATS AVER, 4 TO 2

The Concord Town baseball team defeated the Aver team 4 to 2 in a game played on the Concord playground before a large crowd. King Kiedy Averbach, Fred Kiedy, a Concord pitcher, pitched the game and was found for seven runs.

SIX REFUSES TO RADIO - The Great Indoor Sport

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

WILL JONES

BEAT THE NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 14.—Harry Cook, manager of Floyd Johnson, Tommy Egan and a stable of boxers, will handle the local fight of Jones, recently defeated lightweight champion in the state decision.

CONCORD TOWN NINE

DEFEATS AVER, 4 TO 2

The Concord Town baseball team defeated the Aver team 4 to 2 in a game played on the Concord playground before a large crowd. King Kiedy Averbach, Fred Kiedy, a Concord pitcher, pitched the game and was found for seven runs.

SIX REFUSES TO RADIO - The Great Indoor Sport

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

George S. Brown, who refused to radio, and two of his grandchildren, Loreita, Frances and Mary Bray (above).

WILL JONES

BEAT THE NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 14.—Harry Cook, manager of Floyd Johnson, Tommy Egan and a stable of boxers, will handle the local fight of Jones, recently defeated lightweight champion in the state decision.

CONCORD TOWN NINE

DEFEATS AVER, 4 TO 2

The Concord Town baseball team defeated the Aver team 4 to 2 in a game played on the Concord playground before a large crowd. King Kiedy Averbach, Fred Kiedy, a Concord pitcher, pitched the game and was found for seven runs.

YOUNG PLAYERS TAKE PLACE TEAM

Philadelphia, Aug. 14.—More than the usual amount of interest in the Philadelphia polo season was manifested by the two polo players who were considered among the most promising of the summer.

LAWRENCE WINNER

AGAINST EVERETT

Lawrence, Aug. 14.—Everett fell before the Lawrence Independents in a polo match played on the Meadow Brook course, which was called on account of darkness.

HUNT IS SOUTHERN

TENNIS CHAMPION

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 14.—Jeff R. Hunt, of Atlanta, Ga., became a tennis champion, who he defeated Edith Pfeiffer of Louisville, 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

TERRY MARTIN IN

RING GO TONIGHT

New York, Aug. 14.—Terry Martin and Billy Levine are expected to battle tonight in a light welterweight fight at the Garden.

FEW WOMEN CAN

BEAT THIS RECORD

Heat and light radio waves are not in spite of their name, but in fact they are.

LEADING BATTERS OF THE

MAJOR LEAGUES

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Horn, S.F., 82 318 106
Horn, S.F., 82 318 106
Horn, S.F., 82 318 106

AMERICAN

Horn, S.F., 82 318 106
Horn, S.F., 82 318 106
Horn, S.F., 82 318 106

Some Special Dope

on Antennas

Tomorrow
Are you using the best antenna possible?
It is headed in the right direction for picking up the DX.

Pyrel To Box Williams

New York, Aug. 14.—Ray Pyrel and Johnny Williams and Jack Hays will meet in a boxing match.

JUMP IN BROADCAST LICENSES

Commerce Department figures just compiled show that there were 1,128 radio stations in the United States at the end of the present fiscal year.

Pyrel To Box Williams

New York, Aug. 14.—Ray Pyrel and Johnny Williams and Jack Hays will meet in a boxing match.

JUMP IN BROADCAST LICENSES

Commerce Department figures just compiled show that there were 1,128 radio stations in the United States at the end of the present fiscal year.

Boston is always calling for education as well as better legislation and better law enforcement.—Rev. John H. Wilson, D. D., Presbyterian minister.

Up to District Attorneys

Mrs. Tilton Says They Can Aid Greatly in Getting Courts to Impose Jail Sentences in Liquor Cases

Mrs. William Tilton is one of the leading women of Massachusetts. She is president of the Parent-Teachers' Association and the legislative agent of the committee of ten million women in the United States for law enforcement.

She was invited by Governor Cox to address a meeting of the district attorneys of Massachusetts which was held in the office of the Attorney-General last Saturday to discuss the bootlegging situation in Massachusetts.

She characterized her address to the district attorneys by a criticism of the conduct of our courts in the enforcement of the prohibition law, and she told the district attorneys that they could greatly help to bring the courts back to their old moorings.

You can inaugurate an era of court procedure that makes our courts a true instrument for giving us value returned, giving us clean communities. Do the courts realize enough that the clean community is up to them in great measure? Bootlegging could cease in any quantity tomorrow if the courts would give jail sentences for first offenses in place of trivial fines.

In your talks, Mr. District Attorneys, is a noble power, power to give us cleaner politics and a cleaner power, power to turn Massachusetts from a State of muddled influence to a State of mammoth influence. Think what Judge Taft has done in Chicago. Think what Judge Boardman has done in Connecticut. Massachusetts will follow with a clean court procedure such as these men have demanded, and I ask you to give them a chance to follow it. You are all of you clean men and you can give us the cleanest courts in the community what the community expects from its courts.

Who can say that Mrs. Tilton is wrong? If the women like Mrs. Tilton are determined to put bootleggers in jail, in jail they will go. It is merely a question of determination. That is where they belong.

One of the worst cesspools in prohibition are the drug stores. Law enforcement officers should pay more attention to them. If every woman whose husband is made drunk by liquor illicitly sold him in the drug stores would take the trouble to find out who sold the liquor and report to the officers, we would soon clean up that sort of criminal.

Four Causes of Disease

Dirt, Dust, Animal Pets, Raw Milk

Dust floating in the air carries disease germs into the mouths and noses of children.

It is known that infantile paralysis has its beginning usually in the mouth or nose, the germs being planted on the mucous membrane.

If the city streets, sidewalks and gutters were kept watered as they should be with DISINFECTING SALT WATER, the dust problem would be solved.

Raw milk is the great carrier of disease—perhaps the greatest danger in epidemics and CERTAINLY the greatest danger in diphtheria, typhoid fever, scarlet fever and similar diseases.

Milk, pasteurized THOROUGHLY, not in the fraudulent way, too often practiced, and sold at the right temperature and only a certain number of hours AFTER PASTEURIZING and always kept covered and protected from disease infection in the homes, would settle the problem of disease through raw milk. But laws must be enforced and people must take trouble.

Dirt causes disease, for germs breed in dirt. In every big city you will find that the poorer the neighborhood, the greater the filth, the greater the neglect by public authorities.

If the prosperous would compel their servants in office to clean the streets of the poor, enforce the laws against accumulation of swill and other dirt, carry on the fight against flies and mosquitoes, the prosperous would not so often have disease germs spreading from the tenements to their houses.

Animal pets, dogs and cats, spread disease. The keeping of such pets, in cities at least, should be absolutely forbidden.

Cats and dogs seek out filth—carrion. They travel from house to house. The cat, which has just been the plaything of a child with diphtheria or scarlet fever, goes out to exchange courtesies with a neighboring cat. And that neighboring cat carries the disease to the little child that presently will play with it.

As the parents have not sense enough to take away from their children the pets that carry disease, the law should have sense enough to forbid such folly.

We scorn the Asiatic fanatics who bathe in and drink water of the "Holy" Ganges, upon which the bodies of those dead of disease may be seen floating.

We wonder that they do not avoid their horrible plagues by the use of a little precaution and common sense.

But with the air in our cities filled with germ-bearing dust—because we refuse to use the unlimited supplies of water—with the gutters filled with filth and every other child playing with a disease-carrying animal pet, we are not exactly in a position to criticize the stupidity of our friends, the Asiatics.

Various Things

Copyright, 1923, by The Century Company

Senator Brookhart of Iowa tells the world and Secretary Hughes that Russia is a world power and the Bolshevik government should be recognized. It needs no ghost from the grave to make clear the fact that one hundred and twenty million Russians, in a country as big as all the other nations of Europe combined, with resources unlimited, are worthy of serious attention. Our government will realize that one of these days whether it wishes to or not.

A bridge is to be built connecting New Jersey and New York city, thus attaching Manhattan and Long Island to the rest of the United States. When that is built you will be able to go in your automobile from Montauk Point, on the east, to the pleasant home of the President, getting out of your automobile, if you choose. And before very long flying machines will make bridges as unnecessary for men as for birds.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Largest Evening Circulation in New England—August 14, 1923

Bobbed Hair and Business

By T. E. Powers

Copyright, 1923, by T. E. Powers

SWISS AUTO BAR IS LIFTED

Saint Moritz, Switzerland, Aug. 14.—Automobile traffic is now allowed in all parts of Switzerland, the people the nation of the Germans recently having voted to annul the law prohibiting motor traffic. The other twenty-one cantons had one by one repealed the laws. There are still several Swiss Cantons where automobiles are not allowed on the highways on Sundays.

THE VOICE OF NEW ENGLAND

No Attention Paid to Anonymous Communications

Motherhood a Disgrace? Editor Boston American:

Recently while wheeling my baby along the sidewalk the restless infant dropped her bottle out of the cot. The bottle fell on the foot of a passing woman, who turned and remarked: "You women with your babies are a disgrace to this country." Since then I am wondering if my time could be used in a more beneficial way than in bringing up babies and developing them into

WORDS FROM THE LIPS OF WISE MEN

Absence of occupation is not necessarily rest.

One man may teach another to speak, but none can teach another to hold his peace.

Many undo themselves by delays—they think to do that hereafter which they never live to do.

It is a foolish person that makes the wolf his confessor.

THE HELPING HAND

Do Not Include Stamps. Letters Not Answered Personally. No Attention Paid to Telephone Calls or Anonymous Letters. No Names Published

We write to each other at least once a week. We exchange snappish and, even calling each other by our first names. So you see, as far as we are concerned, the Helping Hand is "in." How do you like it? We are boosting the Helping Hand on the victoria like this:

"Your life just a jumble, full of toil and care, smile a bit as you pass, and your burden is shared."

Smile a bit as you pass, and your burden is shared. I've forgot all your troubles, making the time bright.

Skies will grow blue and sunny if you are bright. And it's so, too. MRS. E. W. H.

We agree with you, have been sent the address of Mrs. M. E. P. and Mrs. H. M. V. Many thanks for the letter and the verses.

Dresses for Baby Editor Helping Hand:

Will you please send the address of Mrs. H. M. V. I have three pairs of children's dresses to fit each one. I can also send the address of Mrs. K. D. C. who expects a baby in September. I can give a few things for the new baby practically new, as my youngest is about three months old. I have a few rompers for a little boy from 18 to 24.

Many thanks. You have sent the address of the two women you mention.

Making Dresses for Girl Editor Helping Hand:

Please send me the address of M. L. the twelve-year-old girl who wants for clothes for her new wardrobe. I can make a new dress for a couple of little dresses.

thanks to the party. Will it be possible for me to get a few things for a boy six and one nine, as they have practically no clothes now? MRS. M. C. H.

Clothes to Give Editor Helping Hand:

I have a few dresses for a woman, size 38. Would like to give a touch with some one who needs such. MRS. M. E. H.

Thank you. You have been sent the address of Mrs. H. B. who needs that size and needs clothes.

Crib and Mattress Editor Helping Hand:

I have a crib and box mattress large enough for a child up to four or five years old. I would gladly give to Mrs. E. G. K. if someone could arrange to have it delivered to her. I also have a large baby carriage that I would give. Wish I could help more. MRS. A. A.

You are helping wonderfully. Many thanks. You have been sent Mrs. E. G. K.'s address.

Other Offers The editor wishes to express his sincere thanks to the following people for their generous offers of assistance to those in need. They have been sent the addresses of those they wish to help.

Mrs. G. F. H., Westmoreland Depot, N. H.—Help for Mrs. M. E. P. and Mrs. H. M. V. Pairs of shoes and some dresses.

Mrs. C. P. T., Newport, R. I.—Men's shoes and other clothing for Mrs. H. B. G.'s children. Miss L. H. Dorchester—Help for Mrs. E. G. K.'s little thirteen-year-old girl.

Mr. W. R. Andrews—Some things for Mrs. J. E. F.'s girl. Mrs. B. L. J., Jamaica Plain—More children's clothes and shoes for Mrs. J. E. F. J. B. C. Brockton—Dresses for Mrs. F. A. H. and magazines for Mrs. L. E. and dresses for Mrs. E. G.

For Boy of Six Editor Helping Hand:

I am writing to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the address you sent me. I would much love to share the little girl. I wrote a letter of Total resources of the national banks of Boston in 1921-22 was $568,951,951, or $7,936,565 less than in February, 1921.

CUNO JUMPS FROM HIS SLIPPING SADDLE

By Herbert Kaufman

CUNO is out. The Reichstag, tired of dancing to the tune of a one-string fiddle, would have refused his ministry a vote of confidence today. A Communist coalition will choose his successor. Setting the saddle on the right horse won't prove an easy task. Even the wit and shrewdness of Bismarck would be challenged by the combined political, social and industrial chaos with which a new premier must deal.

Week-end riots of more than usual violence score nineteen deaths. Eleven persons are killed while raiding food warehouses.

Anarchy, unable to reach the eam of a phlegmatic and normally conservative folk, now cunningly appeals to their empty bellies.

Poincare, backed by a stronger army than Napoleon led at the apogee of his power, prepares to give thumb-screws another twist. Carthago delenda est—resistance must be destroyed. No discussions, no change of plan, no relenting until Germany cries quits and bolts her aisle of humble pie.

Any Pound of Flesh Will Do

The British note is thus answered before official acknowledgment. Paris newspapers pluck Baldwin's latest chick before it's out of the shell. If His Majesty's government doesn't approve of occupation and confiscation until reparations are satisfied, John Bull may ransom the Ruhr by canceling French obligations.

France isn't particular where she collects her pound of flesh, or how she gets it. If Britain looks for war loan payment, let her support top-dog interpretation of the Versailles Treaty and turn the spit while Poincare pursues necessary tactics to fry fat from the Teuton goose.

All the one-stringed fiddles aren't in Berlin. In the interim, Belgium will get 500,000,000 francs to tide over fiscal emergencies. Plenty of money for everybody but creditors.

A Four-Billion-Dollar Trap

Behold what should have happened to America had we accepted the invitation to pull hot chestnuts for the allies. As a member of the league, this government would be in the same position that England occupies.

Having called upon the German people to surrender under the pledge of a square deal, we'd be obligated to demand a re-examination of their assets and compelled by conscience and honor to protest against trans-Rhine oppressions.

Whereupon the Quai d'Orsay would suavely offer us the alternative suggested to London.

Prospects of recovering our four billions aren't rosy, but that huge sum is, to date, at least one of the diplomatic trappings yapping for reckless, sentimental entanglements.

Warren Hill, of Antigo, Wisconsin, finds overheated brakes on his automobile.

A garage man tells him to "take that painful" and cool them. The bucket was filled with gasoline instead of water. Just about the sort of mistake we'd make by playing Mr. Fix-it in a strange shop.

The more we learn of overseas intrigues, the more one is inclined to agree with the Elizabethan cynic who declared that "knaves and fools are the composition of the whole world."

One More Bungle of Versailles Surgery

Hungary is an example of the bungles America is likely to make when settling the destinies of neighborhoods we don't the least understand. Our own delegates consented to the inexcusable separation there of population centres from larger districts—of factory areas from natural bases of supply.

History warns that the hopes and pride of a great race will always burst the restraint imposed by revenge and jealousy.

Forest rangers have been instructed to bury discarded bottles. Sooner or later the sun changes them to burning glasses. Time inflames repressed nations.

Just as bodies of men and nations are not to be emptied of resource and aspiration and impudently cast aside.

The Golden Age of Imagination

Would that inventors might produce a cable to guide statesmen through their fogs as aviators were electrically piloted last week through obscured country.

Flying machines driven by a mixture of compressed air and combusted fuel are next on the program. No need for propellers.

The practicality of the idea, however, is offset by dangerously heavy and cumbersome machinery.

But why bother with winged elephants when 300-pound flivver planes are available?

Cristianston, Danish engineer, sticks a feather in his cap and announces the first wireless telephone through which confidential conversation is possible. Young John Hays Hammond, if one remembers aright, anticipated the Scandinavian wizard several months ago and sold his device to the War Department.

Thomas Edison revisits Milan, Ohio, where he was born, and reminisces a bit.

A neighbor asks if he recalls sitting on a goose egg in an attempt to hatch it. He didn't sense that it was a golden goose filled with incandescent lights, talking machines, motion pictures and poured concrete buildings.

No Room for Rivals

New York State concerns in the first six months of 1923, despite Mr. Edison's omnipresent bulbs, manufacture seven million more feet of gas than a year ago. Most of it was used for heat—saving of 350,000 tons of coal.

The introduction of radio didn't diminish telephone earnings. Express companies employ 14,400 horse-drawn wagons besides motor trucks. One convenience doesn't necessarily drive another from the field.

Standard Oil, claiming to pursue a set policy of meeting the prices of competition, reduces gasoline to sixteen cents a gallon in South Dakota.

Apology, you'll witness, leaves no room for rivals.

SLAYER BEGS TO DIE IN CHILD

TO DIE IN CHAIR

"I want to die in the electric chair in Massachusetts. I don't want to hang in New Hampshire."

Nunie George Tsekos, confessed slayer of his wife, Natalie Tsekos, and her aged mother, Catherine Adams, at Franklin, N. H., thus declared himself to County Solicitor Herbert Raines of Merrimack County, N. H., when visited in his cell at ~~the~~ Cambridge jail.

Tsekos previously announced his intention to fight extradition. The where they were abandoned.

The penalty for first degree murder in New Hampshire is hanging, if the jury recommends death. Otherwise life imprisonment faces the slayer.

Had $7,500 in Cash

Taszkos is now charged with the murder of a woman in Medford, a technical charge, and, on this charge he will be arraigned today in Malden court, before Judge Willis W. Stover.

A second autopsy was performed ders, representing Merrimack County, New Hampshire. The purpose of this was to attempt to clear up

The finding of $7,600 in cash on Tesker's person, when he was searched, has intensified a possible motive.

Tina Over.

VETERANS DEMAND BERGDOLL

Washington, Aug. 16.—The State Department was formally appealed to today by James A. McFarland, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans, to bring to justice Grover Cleveland Bergdall, "the slacker who has brazenly taunted the authority of the United States." In his plea to Secretary Hughes, McFarland also requested that the department take every precaution for the safety of our fellow-member, Lieut. Griffith, who is under arrest at Eberbach for an alleged attempt to kidnap Bergdall.

MILKMAN SAW WIFE DAY AFTER TSEKOS SAYS HE KILLED HER

NEIGHBORS HEARD ROW IN HOME SATURDAY NIGHT

Continued from First Page.

of robbery. Tsekos, however, claims that he recently sold his house in Franklin. The authorities will check up this statement today.

Rush Extradition

But, while Tsekos was looking forward to the "easier way out," the authorities of New Hampshire and Massachusetts were setting in operation the machinery of the law that will deliver the confessed slayer in the jurisdiction of the former State.

Today Gov. Fred H. Brown of New Hampshire will sign the extradition papers for Tsekos' return. The documents will be rushed to Gov. Charles C. of Massachusetts for his approval. Attorney General Hinkley of New Hampshire stated today that he expected to have the alleged murderer back in New Hampshire by Friday of this week.

Cop Suspended

Petroleum W. H. J. Conway, the Lowell officer to whom Charles T. Clarke of Franklin, the driver of the "death car" confided his suspicions, at 1 o'clock Monday morning, was suspended from the Lowell police department "the object of duty."

Conway, it is said, admitted that Clarke approached him and told him of two suspicious boxes in the Ford machine that he maintained that the reason he did not investigate the chauffeur's suspicions at the time was because he feared that Tsekos would flee.

The officer said that he hailed a taxicab soon after the machine containing the dismembered bodies of the two women had left the spot and gave chase, but in the darkness he could not find Clarke's car.

Saw Women Sunday

Conway then, according to his statement, reported the affair to headquarters. Motorcycle Officer Lynch, who was dispatched to the scene, was unable to trace the murderer's car.

The statement of a Franklin N. H. milkman that he saw and talked to Mrs. Tsekos and her mother at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, despite the fact that Tsekos' husband of the former, confessed to murdering them both on Saturday night, has injected a new angle into the murder that has New Hampshire officials puzzled.

Talked With Wife

Michael Kukacz, the milkman, living on River road in a grilling, lasting several hours by Attorney General Irving A. Hinkley and High Sheriff George A. Wagoner, of Morris County, stuck to the story that he saw into the Tsekos home at 11 o'clock last Sunday morning and conversed with the two women. He told the investigators that Mrs. Tsekos paid him a milk bill, amounting to $5.25 and that she told him then that she would like to take her mother over to his farm, sometime so that the other woman could see his cows and poultry.

The State prosecutor stated later that he was inclined to believe the man's story, for the other found County Solicitor Herbert W. Rourke of Concord, N. H., declared his belief in Tsekos' statement that the double murder occurred on Saturday night.

Kukacz, when asked how he placed this incident on Sunday morning, said that he usually visited the station around 9 o'clock on weekdays and at 11 o'clock on Sundays.

No One on Monday

His story was corroborated in part, by Jerry Hopper, ten years of age, of River street, who helped the milkman on that day. The boy said he went to early mass on Sunday and went with Kukacz after church.

The milkman said that Mrs. Tsekos told him, when he was at the house, that her husband was in church. When he came on all bounds on Monday he found the house locked up, he said, and neighbors told him that the family was away.

According to neighbors there was a fight in the Tsekos home on Saturday night. This has been particularly noted. Screams of women and the high-pitched voices of a man were heard. The third of bodies was also discernible in the dirt that was ejected, according to women living nearby.

Fight Overheard

Mrs. Carrie Merrill of No. 41 Canal street, two houses from the Tsekos home, told the Boston

American that she heard a terrific uproar in the ill-fated home at midnight Saturday.

"I heard a man's voice, raised in anger and I think I could hear the sounds of women's voices, although the racket was so confused that I am not absolutely sure of that. I did not see either of the women on Sunday but I saw the man, wheeling the two children up and down the stairs."

"He appeared very nervous and excited. He looked at the house several times in a peculiar manner."

Mrs. Beale Deschaine of No. 49 Canal street, whose home is only separated from the Tsekos home by thin partitions told of hearing a fight in the latter apartment around 9 o'clock Saturday night.

Jealous of Wife

She declared that she could hear Mrs. Tsekos screaming and the two children were crying loudly. According to her story, Mrs. Tsekos ran from the rear to the front of the house and back again, screaming all the while.

"Mrs. Tsekos told me, many times, that money was the cause of the trouble between her husband and she," Mrs. Deschaine stated to a Boston American reporter.

"She told me that the husband was very jealous of her and that he had her watched at her place of employment. When I asked her why she did not leave him, she said 'If I did he would kill me for that is what they do in my country.'"

Trained Wife

"Mrs. Tsekos told me that she earned from $27 to $40 a week and that her husband insisted that she turn it over to him. He banked it, she said. She told me that she had a sister dying in Boston and that, for the sake of emergency, she was trying to raise some money, in case the sister died."

Tsekos, it was learned, was taking up the weaving industry so that, it was supposed, he could work with his wife in the Stevens Turbine Company and assist her. According to neighbors, Tsekos was intensely jealous of his wife but the cause of this jealousy has not yet been revealed.

According to Mrs. Deschaine, Mrs. Tsekos left her husband a year ago, while living near Boston. On June 25, 1922, the wife and her mother, with Mrs. Tsekos' two children, namely, Franklin and went to live at No. 14 the street. A month later the husband trailed them to that address and made his home with them.

"Wagon Hopper, landlord of the house, said today that he was forced to order them to move out because of the recent fights in their home. Almost daily he declared he was in forced that Tsekos 'beat' his wife and his mother."

Room Undisturbed

Last night, it was learned, Mrs. Tsekos worked in Laconia. To reach her place of employment she was obliged to walk three miles to the railroad station at Milton and back again each day.

Indications that the double murder, and murder-in-law, charges traced came in the midst of calm and peacefulness was shown in an inspection of the Tsekos home.

In the kitchen, within ten feet of the spot where Tsekos claims he committed the two crimes, stood a high chair. A rattle still dangled from the arm of the chair. A kerosene oil stove stood near the chair. Still standing on the stove was a bottle of milk, setting in a stain, where it was apparently being heated at the time of the crime.

Scrubbed Blood

The bloodstain on the floor bore no signs of blood, but this bears out the confessed slayer's statement that he scrubbed the floor before leaving the house.

On the small platform, at the foot of the cellar stairs, were signs that showed that the place had been recently scrubbed and mopped. The walls were splattered with blood. Some of the stains also bore blood stains, but there were also places that showed that a knife had been used, presumably to eradicate other stains.

A small piece of flesh was found by investigators in the toilet, and has silver rise in the theory that the murderer held the victim over the toilet when he cut their throats.

Mrs. Deschaine, 78 years old, mother of Numa G. Tsekos, a self-confessed slayer of his wife, said she had seen the bodies of the two women, and mother-in-law, charges that the wife taunted her husband about her friendship with other men, in order to inflame his passion.

Mrs. Tsekos declared that it was the wife's passion for pretty clothes, for gay life, and auto parties that caused the germ of hatred and murder in her son's heart in his home at Franklin, N. H.

The grief-stricken mother names the girl's own mother, Mrs. Adams, as confiding in daughter's action.

SUSPECTED WIFE

"My son did not mean to do it," she cried in her native tongue. "He was driven to it by the conduct of his wife. She wrecked his home, abandoned his children, ran away from him three times in the course of their nine years of married life. What can a man do under those conditions?"

"He suspected that she was leading a gay life, but he could prove nothing. The last time she ran away, she fled to Franklin, N. H., and he heard reports that confirmed his suspicion."

Born in London, Cardinal Daugherty, of Philadelphia, had an hour interview with Pope Pius today.

Reckoned—Four men were killed and two injured by falling date at the mines of the Boone from Conway.

SEEK CHINESE FOR DRUGGING WHITE GIRL

Boston police are combing the haunts of Chinatown in an effort to capture two Chinese brothers, Pe and Duck Sany, both of New York, who are alleged to have drugged Miss Anna Casey, of No. 30 Ham mon avenue, with morphine, and then robbed her of $200. Police fear the girls may have escaped to New York.

Miss Casey charges that the girls enabled her to get from New York where she had been living, brought her to room in Boston, and told her, after they had first drugged her, with morphine.

The alleged attack was revealed when officers, attracted by the girls' screams, battered down the door of her room. She was taken to the City Hospital, where she was found to be suffering from an overdose of morphine.

Miss Casey told the police that she first met the men in New York's Chinatown. It was on that occasion, she declared, that she came to Boston.

Service that makes friends

GILCHRIST CO.

Value that keeps friends

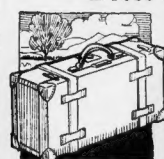

MISSES' and women's
Summer Dresses
REDUCED TO
$4.95

Not dresses bought especially for this sale, but our regular stock reduced. Youthful models with dainty collars and cuffs of organdy lace, some with contrasting piping. Other equally as attractive collarless models, some trimmed with taffeta. Light and dark colors.

MATERIALS:

- Figured Voiles
- Lilacs
- Crepes
- Foulard Patterns
- Plain or Dotted Voiles
- Imported Gingham

For Vacation and Week-ends!
Dress Suit Cases

Black Enamel
Week-end Cases $2.95
Dupont brand—known for their fine QUALITY. Leather corners with crettonne lining and two locks.

Genuine cowhide leather with sewed-on corners and side lock. As dependable in quality as it is practical and good looking for every travel use.

Suit Cases $5
Enamel; extra deep and commodious; long straps. VALUE.

Week-end Case $5

MISSES' and women's

Travel
Coats
$35

To be comfortably a-travel one needs a coat that is cut for freedom of movement. This coat, with its full sweep, silk-lined detachable belt, convertible collar and excellent tailoring is adaptable for fall or summer deck.

Travel
Suits
$25

Features:

- Fall Fabrics
- Fall Colors
- Fall Fashions

Point Twill or Tricotine of navy blue or black. The straightline effect is carried out, whether the trimming be stitching, novelty folds or extreme tailoring. All are lined with crepe de chine or satin.

"Gilt Crest"
French Voile
Blouse Pictured at left
Square neck, tuxedo. Collar of imitation zebra lace.
$3.50

Dimity Waist, pictured at right, $1.50

GILCHRIST CO.

Pilene's Automatic Bargain BASEMENT

Maker had to have cash—sacrifices high priced stock, also odd lots—seconds from 2 other makers

Even 1719 broadcloths—321 SILK shirts
EXTRAORDINARY—Thursday

7721 men's remarkable shirts

our plan
First price low as we lose by our automatic reduction plan:
25% reduction after 12 selling days
50% reduction after 18 selling days
75% reduction after 24 selling days
Goods given away to charitable institutions after 30 selling days

1718 imported broadcloth shirts $1.50 (seconds)
1001 domestic broadcloth shirts, (2nds) $1.50
2158 heavy fibre stripe madras $1.50
321 SILK shirts (seconds), $1.50
102 stripe or figured—fibre and cotton (seconds)
2119 collar attached (some seconds) oxfords, poplins or cotton pongees
1302 mercerized cotton pongees (white, tan, grey)

HUNDREDS OF OTHER BARGAIN LOTS NOT ADVERTISED—NO MAIL ORDERS

Imagine 18-32 silk shirts at $1.50 for men who choose you easily!

Yest! Plenty of white, gray or tan button-down or plain collar-stuffed shirts, $1.50.

Heavy fibre stripes. Another striking $1.50 example of bar-gain.

Even fibre and cotton shirts for men here when the doors open, $1.50.

Broadcloths, $1.50—plenty of them—favorites because of durability and silk-like appearance.